INTRODUCTION

The Lyric Hammersmith is one of the UK’s leading producing theatres. For more than 120 years it has been responsible for creating some of the UK’s most ground-breaking and acclaimed theatrical productions. At the same time it has gained a national reputation for its work with children and young people and creates pathways into the arts for young talent from all backgrounds, helping to diversify our industry. The Lyric’s dual commitment to producing the highest quality contemporary theatre, alongside nurturing the creativity of young people, is what makes it unique within the theatre ecology of the UK. It has one of the youngest audiences of any theatre in the country and is a place where some of the UK’s finest actors and theatre-makers work side-by-side with some of the most diverse or disadvantaged young people in London. The cross-fertilisation of these two is what makes the Lyric Hammersmith so exciting and so distinctive. It is a local theatre rooted in its community with a national and international reputation for the quality and innovation of its artistic work.

OUR MISSION

The Lyric Hammersmith produces work that is provocative, entertaining, popular, eclectic, messy, contradictory and diverse.

We work with the best theatre artists around and champion the next generation, nurturing young talent from all backgrounds.

We strive to be at the heart of our community whilst being internationally recognised

We lurch wildly between high art and populism – hopefully achieving both at the same time

Hammersmith and proud!

THE LYRIC: PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE

The Lyric is located in central Hammersmith in the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham, two minutes from Hammersmith tube and bus stations.

The theatre has an extraordinary history. It was designed by the world-renowned Victorian theatre architect, Frank Matcham, and originally opened in 1895 on a different site from the one it stands on today. In 1972, the original building was scheduled for demolition to make way for a new shopping and housing complex. There was a huge public outcry and, at the final hour, the local council saved the theatre by instructing that the Lyric could only be pulled down by the developers if Matcham’s exquisite plasterwork was preserved and recreated in a new theatre above the Kings Mall Shopping Centre. The new Lyric Hammersmith was officially opened in 1979 by the Queen. The Matcham plasterwork had been painstakingly reconstructed in a new Victorian-style 550 seat auditorium and a modern black-box 110 seat studio was added to the building at the same time.

In 2004, the Lyric was redeveloped again with funding from the National Lottery and a public fundraising appeal. The £2m project was designed by the internationally acclaimed architect, Rick Mather. The entrance of the theatre was relocated from King Street to Lyric Square and a box office, street-level café, rehearsal room and education space were added within a new extension.
In April 2015 the theatre entered a new and exciting phase of its history. After nearly a decade of planning, fundraising and building, we opened the doors to a new Lyric, again designed by Rick Mather Architects, which includes a major extension to the West. The new Reuben Foundation Wing added two floors of facilities aimed at expanding the Lyric’s work with young people, emerging and professional artists. It includes:

- A new rehearsal space the size of the main house stage with a stage-management office
- A dance studio with a sprung floor and full height mirrors
- A film and TV studio and editing suite equipped with a ‘green screen’ and professional camera and editing equipment
- A 50 seat cinema
- A recording studio and a suite of small and medium-sized music practice rooms
- A digital play space
- A sensory space for disabled children
- New and expanded set and wardrobe workshops
- New staff offices

Externally the building has been re-rendered and a nine metre high neon sculpture designed by the artist David Batchelor, which is based on plasterwork detail from the Victorian auditorium, has been installed on the East Elevation. Internally the existing building has also been refurbished including the redesign of the theatre’s café and bar and installation of new environmentally friendly heating and lighting systems as well as a green sedum roof.

In the Summer of 2018 the Lyric completed a refurbishment of both its main house auditorium and studio theatre.

The Lyric has a proven commitment to environmental sustainability and has just become the first theatre venue in the UK to announce it has been awarded the maximum five stars under the Julie’s Bicycle Creative Green Certification Scheme. The new building was awarded a BREEAM rating of ‘Excellent’ – the Government’s kitemark for sustainability in new and refurbished buildings.

LYRIC GOVERNANCE, STAFFING AND FINANCES

The Lyric is a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee. As such, we are overseen by a non-executive Board of Directors which is chaired by Lisa Burger. The Board delegate day-to-day management of the theatre to its Executive Team: Rachel O’Riordan (Artistic Director and Joint CEO) and Sian Alexander (Executive Director, Joint CEO and Company Secretary). We have a talented and dedicated team of around 50 permanent staff, and employ numerous freelance artists, practitioners and casual staff, as well as operating a substantial apprenticeship scheme.

The Lyric aims to create a programme of work that is artistically adventurous and ambitious but also financially sensible and sustainable. We have an annual turnover of approximately £5-6m and our work is funded through four main sources: grant income from Arts Council England and the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham; box office income; fundraising income from trusts, businesses and individuals; and other earned income which includes commercial hires, catering and front of house sales.
