FOR THE CULTURE - CELEBRATIONS OF BLACKNESS FESTIVAL

(Line-up in date order)

THE PROLOGUE: OPENING CEREMONY

Friday 28 January, 6.30pm | Main House

For The Culture - Celebrations of Blackness Festival kicks off with The Prologue: Opening Ceremony featuring musicians and acrobatics including the Endurance Steel Orchestra, One Drum Foundation, traditional Mbira player Millicent Chapanda, poetry by Ronke Adekoluejo, and a special welcome from festival curators Dr Peggy Brunache, Tinuke Craig, and Nicholai La Barrie. Free event.

RADIANCE: AN ART EXHIBITION

Friday 28 – Sunday 30 January | Reuben Foundation Wing and Lyric Cinema

Running for the entirety of the festival, Radiance is an art exhibition of painting, sculptural installation and film curated by Bolanle Tajudeen and Pacheanne Anderson from the Black Blossoms School of Art and Culture. Radiance exhibits the manifestation of the artists' thoughts and feelings towards diasporic African and Caribbean radiance. Free event.

Black Blossoms School of Art and Culture is an e-learning platform which delivers short courses and masterclasses that decolonise, deconstruct and democratise art history and creative learning. Classes are taught by leading artists, scholars and art professionals.

LE GATEAU CHOCOLAT

Friday 28 January, 8pm | Main House

Le Gateau Chocolat, the black-bearded drag and cabaret diva, headlines the first night of the festival and will mark his debut performance at the Lyric Hammersmith Theatre with his brand new show Raw Cacao. Lurching from pop to opera via folk song, musical theatre, disco and more, Raw Cacao is a veritable mixtape of the songs that have shaped him as a man and as an artist his most personal work to date.

JOSEPHINE

Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 January, 11am & 1pm | Lyric Studio

The extraordinary story of performer, spy and civil rights activist Josephine Baker is brought to the Lyric Studio on Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 January in Josephine, by Leona Allen and Jesse Briton in a co-production from The Egg, Wales Millennium Centre and Oxford Playhouse.

With a sultry, Harlem Renaissance-inspired score, spring-heeled Charleston dancing and a hatful of historical figures, Josephine blurs the real with the imagined as we follow one woman's incredible journey from the slums of St Louis via the bright lights of Paris and into the hearts of the world. For ages 7+

FOR THE CONVERSATION: THE POLITICAL IS ALWAYS PERSONAL

Saturday 29 January, 12pm | Lyric Cinema

Festival co-curator Dr Peggy Brunache hosts a panel discussion on the topic The Political is Always Personal with panellists Lady Phyll, co-founder and CEO of UK Black Pride, and acclaimed stand-up comedian Dane Baptiste. In an unflinching and personal in-conversation, the panel will share ways of finding Black joy, love, resistance, and self-care through their own personal and professional lives while navigating intense emotion and one's proximity to racialised trauma, marginalisation, and violence. Free event.

FOR THE ACTORS: MONOLOGUE SHOWCASE

Saturday 29 January, 2pm | Main House

For The Actors is a monologue showcase featuring exceptional young Black talent, followed by a panel discussion and Q&A chaired by film producer Mathieu Ajan with leading actors Alfred Enoch, recently on stage as Romeo at Shakespeare's Globe, Lydia West who played Jill Baxter in Channel 4's It's a Sin; Susan Wokoma as seen in Chewing Gum and Crazyhead; and Ronke Adekoluejo known for playing Jack Starbright in the Alex Rider series. For The Actors will share invaluable insight, expertise and practical advice from leading professional actors. Eight actors, aged 18-25, will each perform a monologue to an audience of industry professionals including casting agents, friends and family. Free event.

90S BABY SHOW

Saturday 29 January, 5pm | Main House

Following sold-out shows across London the wildly popular 90s Baby Show podcast is hitting 'record' live on stage at the Lyric Hammersmith Theatre in this headline event. Join Fred, Temi and VP for a candid conversation about life as a 90s baby in this ever-changing world. From pop culture to relationships and the Black experience in the UK; no topic is taboo for the '1.9.9.2' Boys.

SHINGAI

Saturday 29 January, 8pm | Main House

Shingai, the legendary frontwoman and bassist of the platinum-selling band Noisettes, will headline on Saturday night with a solo set including songs from her album Too Bold, inspired by the sounds of her London, Bantu and Zimbabwean heritage.

Renowned for her spellbinding performances, and described by Rolling Stone magazine as “the new afrofuturist pop goddess,” Shingai will take audiences on a sonic odyssey. The exquisite songstress returns to London from Zimbabwe for this one-off special event.

FOR THE BABIES

Sunday 30 January, 11am | Rehearsal Room 1

Mother of five, birth activist, doula educator and life coach, Mars Lord facilitates an intimate and life-affirming post-natal care workshop specifically for babies and their parents. Dispelling myths associated with Black birth, Mars Lord will explain the role of the doula and how the birth experience can contribute positively to your life and that of your child plus practical tips on how to navigate the maternity system safely. Free event.

HARRIET

Sunday 30 January, 12pm | Lyric Cinema

The Lyric Cinema will host an intimate screening of the 2019 feature film Harriet, starring Cynthia Erivo, which tells the extraordinary tale of Harriet Tubman's escape from slavery and transformation into one of America's greatest heroes, whose courage, ingenuity, and tenacity changed the course of history.

This screening will include a specially recorded introduction from Clarke Peters who stars in the film and whose voice was instrumental in the creation of For The Culture - Celebrations of Blackness Festival. Free event.

FOR THE MIND

Sunday 30 January, 1pm | Rehearsal Room 1

Facilitated by Black Minds Matter, For The Mind is a free workshop which explores and supports mental health specifically within the Black community providing tools for improving and maintaining wellbeing. Free event.

Black Minds Matter is led by experienced therapists and aims to make mental health topics more relevant and accessible for all Black people in the U.K., removing the stigma and remodelling the services to be relevant for the Black community.

LEMN SISSAY

Sunday 30 January, 2.30pm | Main House

Lemn Sissay will give a reading and talk on the story behind how he created Gold from the Stone in this Sunday headline event with one of Britain's most popular and celebrated poets. Lemn Sissay is renowned for his strong, lyrical work on social and family themes. He was seventeen when he wrote his first poetry book, which he hand-sold to the miners and millworkers of Wigan. Since then, his poems have become landmarks, sculpted in granite and built from concrete, recorded on era-defining albums and declaimed in over thirty countries.

THE HIGH TABLE

Sunday 30 January, 3.30pm | Lyric Studio

Festival curator Tinuke Craig directs a rehearsed reading of Temi Wilkey's debut play The High Table, an epic family drama played out between the heavens and earth.

The dresses are chosen, the venue's been booked and the RSVPs are flooding in. But with her wedding to Leah drawing nearer, Tara's future is thrown into jeopardy when her Nigerian parents refuse to attend. This kind of love is unheard of, they say. It's not African.

High above London, suspended between the stars, three of Tara's ancestors are jolted from their eternal rest. Stubborn and opinionated, they keep watch as family secrets are spilled and the rift widens between Tara and her parents. Can these representatives of generations past keep the family together? And will Tara's decision ever get their blessing?

The High Table was first produced at the Bush Theatre and saw Temi Wilkey win the Stage Debut Award for Best Writer in 2020. Free event.

THE EPILOGUE: CLOSING CEREMONY WITH SHAN AKO AND FOR THE CULTURE CHOIR Sunday 30 January, 5.30pm | Main House

The festival culminates with The Epilogue: Closing Ceremony with award-winning performer and singer/songwriter Shan Ako (Les Misérables, X Factor finalist 2018) and the festival's very own For The Culture Choir – bringing together Black professional choralists from all over London who will come together for this one-off performance. Expect to hear soul, gospel, pop, R&B, jazz, folk and reggae. Free event.

Shan Ako appeared in the X Factor finals in 2018 and has since played Eponine in Les Misérables in the West End for which she won Best Performer in a Musical at The Stage Debut Awards.

Dramaturge credits include: Heart of Hammersmith, Feels, The mob reformers (Lyric Hammersmith Theatre).

Headline Artists

Le Gateau Chocolat's work spans drag, cabaret, opera, musical theatre, children's theatre and live art. His bewitching baritone has been heard in previous works Le Gateau Chocolat, I Chocolat, In Drag (Royal Festival Hall commission) and BLACK (Homotopia commission), which toured with music ensemble Psappha.

His children's show Duckie which introduces young people to the ideas of otherness, tolerance and self-acceptance, premiered at the Southbank Centre and has been presented across the UK.

His recent production ICONS toured worldwide. ICONS has also been presented with accompaniment from the Little Coco Orchestra, a Le Gateau Chocolat initiative to support diverse musicians through the creation of an ensemble formed entirely of women of colour.

Le Gateau Chocolat has been invited to perform at prestigious venues such as the Royal Albert Hall, Barbican Centre, Sydney Opera House, and as part of the Olivier-Award winning La Clique/La Soiree. He has worked with composers Julian Philips, Jonathan Dove, Jocelyn Pook and Orlando Gough. He performed as Feste in Twelfth Night at Shakespeare's Globe and in the Gate Theatre and English National Opera co-production Effigies of Wickedness. He also appeared as part of Taylor Mac's A 24-Decade History of Popular Music: The First Act at the Barbican, and in the Donmar Warehouse's Sweet Charity.

Le Gateau Chocolat recently appeared in Wagner's Tannhauser which opened the 108th Bayreuth Festival in 2019 and attracted headlines around the world for the reaction to his participation as a drag artist of colour.

Shingai, the legendary front woman and bassist from the platinum selling band The Noisettes is a Zimbabwean-British musician born and raised in South London.

Shingai, welcomes a new chapter of her journey with her debut solo album "Too Bold". "The new afrofuturist pop goddess" according to Rolling Stone, distinguished for her mesmerising and dramatic performances, prepares you for a sonic odyssey.

A sound inspired by her London, Bantu and Zimbabwean heritage, gives Too Bold an effervescent soundscape, fearlessly infused with a soulful yet spontaneous spirit, which is both electrifying and compelling.

Shingai is leading from the heart, transporting you to a higher vision of the future while acknowledging what it will take for us to get there. Too Bold treads many paths and themes about rising above perplexing times, being resilient, standing your ground and confronting the struggle. Inviting you to keep the optimist alive within us and be better in every way.

Shingai spent most of 2020 and 2021 in Southern Africa to record fresh collaborations due to be released from October 2021 to the end of 2022. She will complete her African tour with collaborations in West and Central Africa.
