

FAQs FOR SCHOOLS

What workshops are available for teachers and students?

What is the Frantic Method? Find out by recreating exercises used in the Othello rehearsal room. Run by Frantic practitioners to support learners who are studying Physical Theatre and Devising at Level 2 and above. Email tess@franticassembly.co.uk to book.

Duration: 2, 4, or 6 hours

Participants: 10-24

Age: suitable for 14+

Venue: in your school

Dates: to be arranged

Cost: from £275 + travel expenses + VAT

Note: Workshops subject to availability

Who do I contact to book a workshop for my class?

Please send an email to tess@franticassembly.co.uk

Frantic Assembly will answer any questions you may have about the workshops including content, timings and availability as well as booking confirmation.

I would like to book tickets to a performance, who should I contact?

For performance bookings only, please email schools@lyric.co.uk and our team will arrange your booking as soon as possible.

Are there any education resources available for Othello?

Yes, you can download a free Resource Pack via the Frantic Assembly website. It is designed for students 14+, teachers and arts educationalists.

Is there a Q&A during the run of Othello?

Yes, the Q&A's are available for ticket holders only after the below performances:

01 February, 7.30pm

08 February, 1.30pm

How long is the Q&A?

The Q&A will run for approximately 45 minutes after the show has ended.

What is the format of the Q&A?

The Q&A will feature the cast of Othello and a representative from Frantic Assembly. More information about the Q&A will be updated here closer to the time. If you have a question specifically about the Q&A content, please email Frantic Assembly tess@franticassembly.co.uk